Have you seen that Oriental perfumery at W. H. Smith's?

Great annual sale is now on at The Red House. Great Bargains in all departments.

Marsh sells corrugated iron, both painted and galvanized. Write for prices.

Thursday Alfonso Bachelier fell and ran a file through one of his hands inflicting a very painful wound.

The little child of Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Kingsley is reported dangerously ill, and small hope is entertained for his recovery.

W. H. Smith's is going to have some nice calendars for 1911. Go in and leave your address with him so he can keep one for you.

This week County Surveyor H. Gordon Gloré has been over in the Harshaw district exporting a mining property for California investors.

Frank Irvine has had a cement sidewalk placed around his pleasant home place on Elm street, thereby greatly enhancing the value of same.

Don't forget the sale of Christmas goods and foods at Mrs. Harry Tomlin's residence next Wednesday, for the benefit of the Woman's Home Mission Society.

Fred Miller and wife registered at the Montezuma hotel last Monday from Patagonia, near where they own mining property which they hope soon to turn for a good figure.

Good news from the Bowie oil fields has gladdened the hearts of many citizens of Nogales who own valuable holdings in the new field. May the boys become millionaires.

Jeff Rountree, the drill expert, will shortly return to Sinaloa, Mexico, where he has a contract to bore for artesian water. Jeff believes he'll strike either water or oil.

You don't have to make any purchases, but every time you can just go into W. H. Smith's and ask for a ticket. You may be lucky and win the big doll he is giving away.

Last evening Mrs. Ferd Van Mourick and the children returned from Los Angeles, where they had been visiting the lady's mother. Mr. Van Mourick went to Tucson to meet the folks.

Bob Wren passed through the city the forepart of the week from Sinaloa, en route home to New Mexico, where he was called by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father.

The proposed constitution for the state of Arizona is now complete, and the election for its ratification or rejection by the voters of the territory will take place Thursday, February 9, 1911.

Noon & Barry is the name of a new law firm in Nogales, Attorney Fred. Noon and Attorney Frank J. Barry, having associated themselves together. Both gentlemen are hustlers and ought to get the business.

J. M. Maytorena, one of Sonora's best known most prominent citizens, passed south the forepart of the week on his way to Guaymas, from Los Angeles, where he had been visiting on private business.

Nogales, Sonora needs fire hydrants, and needs them bad. Hydrants have been received, but as yet have not been installed. In case of a fire they will be greatly missed, and untold loss of property result.

We are sorry to report Dr. Barr on the sick-list, a sufferer from fever contracted in Sonora a couple of weeks ago. Nothing serious, however, and we hope soon to see the genial dentist wearing the same old smile.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thuron Richardson was made happy Wednesday by the arrival of a pretty girl baby. Mother and little one are doing nicely and the fond father is the proudest man in town. Hence that glad smile elongated smile on the gentleman's ever genial countenance.

The masquerade ball last night at the Santa Cruz Club was a most delightful affair, being largely attended by members and their friends. Everybody had a fine time. The club will give a grand New Year's ball.

No danger of a beer famine in Nogales, for a couple of weeks at least. Wednesday Marsh & Herold, of the Nogales Cold Storage, received a big carload of Schlitz, and lovers of that famous beverage are now contented.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wanless, of Hermosillo, spent Thursday in the city purchasing Christmas presents. Mr. Wanless has been a resident of Hermosillo many years. He is one of the best known assayers in the state.

Early yesterday morning the siren whistle called out the fire department, which however, was not needed, a small blaze in the rear of Escalada's warehouse, near the school house, having been extinguished before the boys arrived.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawton, of Guaymas, were visitors in Tucson. Mr. Lawton who is assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, having gone to the old pueblo to consult with Colonel Randolph.

Robert Shugart, who headed a party of hunters who went hunting for deer and other big game west of Arivaca, has returned. The rest of the party will return later. Mr. Shugart says game is very plentiful out in the country visited and everybody had a fine time.

This evening Dr. Parry and Mr. L. Lulley, proprietor of Lulley's Buffet, will return home from the hot springs near Yuma, where they had been enjoying the baths. Dr. Parry writes that both himself and Mr. Lulley have been greatly benefited by the health-giving waters.

Mr. I. G. King, owner of large mining property north of the city a few miles, is a visitor in the city today, from his camp. Several days ago investors who visited his camp expressed themselves as agreeably surprised and pleased at the extent and value of the property.

Special Officer O. G. Huss of Pima County, was here Tuesday securing witnesses against the Mexican arrested in Pima county for robbing the W. E. Balcom ranch at Mesquit Park, this county. Huss, who spends most of his time between Tucson and Nogales, is a very busy man, and is making a fine record.

Mr. Chapman, a prominent citizen of Kansas City, Missouri, is a visitor in the city, having arrived Thursday night. The gentleman since coming here has been busy organizing a mining company to operate mining property in Santa Cruz county, a short distance north of this city. Attorney Frank J. Duffy will represent the new company.

Prof. M. N. Andrews, formerly of Nogales, now a resident of Tucson, where he has resided since leaving Nogales, was a visitor in town Wednesday, between trains, en route to Hermosillo, Sonora, on business connected with mining property in Mexico, near Nogales, in which he is interested. While here he enjoyed a visit with a number of old time friends.

Mr. Harold Wealton, of Magdalena, spent Monday and Tuesday in the city on private business. The gentleman is a brother of Hon. L. N. Wheaton, who is well and favorably known here and in Sonora, where he formerly engaged in mining. L. N. and family now reside in California. Harold is looking after his brother's Sonora mining interests. Magdalena is his headquarters.

Tuesday morning Lieutenant Robinson and his men, twenty of them, returned to Fort Huachuca, having been recalled there by orders from headquarters. The lieutenant had been sent here to investigate the wild rumors of impending trouble in Nogales, Sonora, between revolutionists and the Mexican government. Last week, after being here several days, the lieutenant made official report of conditions as he found them, and as a result he and his men were recalled to Fort Huachuca, where they are now stationed. Nogales, Arizona, and Nogales, Sonora, are two of the most peaceable, law-abiding towns on the map, and all telegraphic and newspaper reports to the contrary, are absolutely false and damaging to our fair cities.

Thursday Mr. Fred. Moore, the Colorado mining man, was a visitor at Hermosillo, on important mining business. Mr. Moore is interested in large, valuable placer gold property in Sonora, which he believes will make both himself and friends wealthy. The gentleman has had a vast amount of mining experience in Colorado and Mexico. We hope Fred will make a million, then some.

Last Sunday U. S. Line Rider Harry Smith brought to the city a number of horses and colts belonging to Mr. Mascareñas, Sr., proprietor of the Santa Barbara and Buena Vista ranches in Sonora, just south of the international line. They were a part of a large bunch of horses, mares and colts stolen from the big ranch some time ago and rounded up by the line riders on this side of the line, who turned over to the owner. The thieves have not been apprehended.

E. B. Holt, manager of the Sonora Verde Operating Company, with headquarters in Magdalena, Sonora, Mexico, spent a couple of days in Nogales the forepart of the week on business for his company. Manager Holt is a very busy man these days arranging to ship a big carload of ore from his company's mines in the Magdalena district to the customs smelter at El Paso, Texas. It is the intention to later erect a reduction plant on the property, which is showing up fine under Mr. Holt's personal supervision.

Great annual sale is now on at The Red House. Great Bargains in all departments.

Portmaster Harry Barnett of Patagonia spent Wednesday at the county seat, returned home Thursday morning. Mr. Barnett has made a number of important needed improvements in his office, having recently installed handsome new fixtures, which he says can't be beat in Arizona. Patagonia, he said, is looking up, in a mining way, and it is only a matter of time when the second city in Santa Cruz county, will be heard from. Just at present everybody is busy doing the annual assessment work on their mining claims.

Jack Woodrum has been visiting old friends and acquaintances in Sonora this week. Mr. Woodrum is very much at home in Sonora, where for many years he was conductor between Nogales and Guaymas. At the present Jack is engaged in the business of farming in California. Although he is fond of the simple life, the old game of railroad still has a fascination for him he can't resist. His friends here would be pleased to welcome him back home in Nogales where he resided longer than any place else.

George Wieland writes from his mines in the Jefferson district, near Patagonia, that he is still working in good ore, and before Christmas expects to be able to make his associates happy, by presenting them with a large body of high-grade ore. The Wieland-Gebler property is also looking better than ever, and the lucky owners are to be congratulated. They have expended a large amount of money, and deserve success. M. J. Doyle and John Wilson, of this city, have good property in the immediate vicinity of the Gebler-Wieland mines.

Pedro Cosca, one of the most prominent citizens of the state of Sonora, arrived in the city last Wednesday evening from New York City, and the same night continued on south to Guaymas, his home. It is said that Mr. Cosca sent a wire to the judge at Guaymas stating that he would appear in His Honor's court at 10 o'clock Thursday morning to answer to any charge the government may have against him. The gentleman is very wealthy and influential. It is believed he will have no trouble squaring himself and friends with the government officials.

Ben E. Lindsey, superintendent of the Anaconda Arizona Mining Company's splendid mining property situated a short distance from Patagonia, this county, was a visitor in the city Wednesday, having come to consult with Roy & Titcomb, Inc., regarding the purchase of two mammoth boilers and a big hoist, for installation at the Anaconda mine, where a large amount of exploration and development has recently been done. Mr. Lindsey is also superintendent of the Mansfield Mining and Smelting Company, the properties of which lie west from Patagonia a few miles.

Mr. Chas. Peck, of the Alamo Out-let Company, who with his partner, Ramon Elias, spent several days here this week, has returned to Magdalena, where he makes his headquarters when not at the ranch thirty miles from that place. The past year the company has done a fine business, having disposed of several thousand head of cattle to American buyers. When here Manager Elias sold another bunch to California buyers. The date of delivery was not learned.

L. M. Raines, president, and P. J. McIntyre, treasurer of the Douglas-Arizona & Sonora Development Company, drove out to their company's Harshaw mining properties last Wednesday. The property adjoins the World's Fair silver bonanza, of Frank Powers and passes a the ear-marks of becoming a great producer like its neighbor. A big force of men will be put to work at once doing annual assessment and development work. The company is in good shape financially, and does not owe a cent. There is plenty of money in the treasury to do the contemplated work which is expected to show up the mine in fine shape.

Mr. John Henderson, the mining man, who with his associate Mr. P. Sandoval of the banking firm of P. Sandoval & Co., Nogales, Sonora, owns large valuable mineral holdings in the state of Sonora, Mexico, has been a guest at the Modern Hotel several days this week, from Pasadena, California, where he and his family now reside. Messrs. Henderson & Sandoval were the original owners of the Port Lobos railroad concession now owned by Frank Murphy and associates, to whom they sold it for a handsome figure. The proposed railroad, the survey for which is now nearing completion, runs through or near wonderfully valuable mining property owned by Henderson & Sandoval. From here Mr. Henderson will visit a number of his holdings in the state of Sonora.

Some time last Sunday night, Mariano Cruz, a young Mexican employed by the Nogales Water Company the past three years, as a pumper, was killed and his body thrown into an old abandoned well on South Arizpe street, Nogales, Sonora, near the company's big pump, where he worked. The young man it is thought, had been struck over the head and instantly killed, after which the body was carried to the old well where it was found by an employe of the company, who went to the plant to look for Cruz, who failed to answer an early morning telephone call from the company's office in this city. Two women have been arrested on suspicion, and every effort is being made to bring the murderers to justice. The body of the dead pumper was buried in the Nogales, Arizona cemetery Tuesday morning.

GUSTETTER-HERRERA

Two of the Line City's Best Known People United.

At the palatial residence of the groom on Crawford street, this city, last Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Doctor Albert Louis Gustetter and Mrs. Florence Bonnell Herrera, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few intimate friends of the high contracting parties being present, to witness the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Congregational church, which was performed by W. A. Laughlin, Ph. D. minister of the Congregational church of this city.

Immediately after the ceremony, the happy bride and groom departed on their honeymoon trip through southern Arizona, in the groom's big automobile, taking with them the best wishes of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Dr. and Mrs. Gustetter will be at home Wednesday evening, December 14th, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock.

Troop Leaves for Manila.

Bound for two years service in the Philippines; Troop F of the Eighth cavalry which for the past two years has been stationed at Fort Huachuca, are en route to San Francisco on a special train, composed of a standard Pullman for the officers, a tourist for the enlisted men's baggage car, and stock cars for the horses.

The troop was commanded by Major Ripley, Captain Sweeney, and Lieutenant Collins. Dr. Steele and Dr. Howell, regimental surgeons, accompanied them. The troop will sail from San Francisco on the transport Sheridan, and will be stationed at Manila.
